Jail for burglar who tried to rob Prem star

A MAN has been jailed for more than 11 years after trying to rob footballer Andy Carroll, as well as committing a string of burglaries across Essex and Hertfordshire.

Jack O'Brien, 22, of Navarre Gardens, Collier Row, was sentenced at Basildon Crown Court to 11 years and three months.

He denied attempting to rob West Ham United striker Carroll of his £22,000 wristwatch on November 2, but was convicted by a jury.

The court heard police were called to reports of two men on motorcycles attempting to rob Carroll, who was driving along Romford Road, Chigwell.

O'Brien rode up alongside Carroll's green Jeep Wrangler at the traffic lights, commented on his watch and demanded he hand it over.

Carroll drove off but O'Brien pulled up alongside again and indicated to the watch. He put his hand in his waistband, pulled it out and made a gun gesture. Carroll, who was unsure if O'Brien had a weapon because he was wearing black gloves tried to get away.

O'Brien and a second motorbike, whose rider is still at large, followed him, and at one point O'Brien pulled in front, making another gun gesture.

Carroll swerved around him and got to safety before calling police.

Detectives obtained footage from cameras on local buses, as well as from a dashcam.

ESCAPE: Andy Carroll

A Met Police spokesman said one of the suspects was linked to other offences due to his "distinctive crash helmet and jacket", and was quickly identified as O'Brien.

When O'Brien was arrested on November 12, he was found in possession of the motorbike, leathers and helmet he had worn during the attempted robbery.

O'Brien was charged with attempted robbery and stood trial at Basildon Crown Court on August 29. Before the trial, O'Brien admitted five counts of burglary in locations including Ingatstone.

An Essex Police spokesman said that mainly jewellery was stolen in each case and removed in the victims' own pillow cases.

O'Brien also pleaded guilty to three counts of attempted burglary, including one in Rettendon, and one count of handling stolen goods – a Suzuki GSXR motorbike stolen in Hornchurch.

Four counts of burglary at locations including Basildon and Grays, and one of attempted burglary in Brentwood will lie on file.

He was sentenced to a total of six years for attempted robbery, five years three months for the burglary offences and 18 months for handling stolen goods, which will run concurrently with the other terms.

He will spend half of his sentence in custody and the rest on licence.

COP IS SACKED FOR WEB CHAT WITH A CHILD

A POLICE officer has been sacked for "preying on vulnerable girls for sexual gratification".

PC William Jarvis was attached to the East Area Command Unit, which is responsible for policing the area of Redbridge, Havering and Barking and Dagenham.

He was sacked on Wednesday,

August 23, after a special case hearing was told that between 2010 and 2010 he engaged in inappropriate online communications with a child or children, including at least one child under 16.

A Metropolitan Police spokesman said: "The chairman found the allegations proven and that they breached the standards of professional behaviour in such a way that the only appropriate outcome was dismissal without notice."

Assistant Commissioner Martin Hewitt, who was chairman of the misconduct hearing, said afterwards: "The public has the right to expect the highest standards of behaviour from police officers and preying on vulnerable girls for sexual gratification falls extremely far below that standard.

"PC Jarvis has fully admitted to the action and accepts that they constitute gross misconduct.

"Therefore, the only appropriate course of action is dismissal."

WIN a table at best Xmas party in Essex

NOW is the time to start thinking about your Christmas Party... and you could be in with a chance of winning one thanks to Best Parties Ever!

Imagine a surreal and magical world where anything can happen at a fantastically themed party this festive season, organised by leading Christmas party experts, Best Parties Ever!

This year, one lucky winner plus nine guests will be transported into a world of extraordinary surroundings and party in style at the mythical Dream Circus.

Indulge in a night of remarkable curiosity designed for your enjoyment.

Step into a land of dreams and join the mythical circus as they astound guests with their spectacular extravaganza.

Sensational performances include gravity-defying aerial tightrope walkers, as well as weird and wonderful creatures, all found within a beautifully lit, sumptuously decorated venue. Partygoers will enjoy delicious hot and cold canapés whilst relaxing with a drink in the uniquely themed bars.

As if that wasn't enough, a fabulous four-course dinner will follow accompanied by a glamorous and daring show from a troupe of world class specialists.

And the fun will not stop there, afterwards guests will be able to head to the casino for a flutter, jump on the exhilarating dodgems or simply dance the night away!

Entertaining more than 190,000 guests every year at 22 venues across the UK, Best Parties Ever has got the festive season down to a fine art.

So join us this year for an unforgettable night – Christmas Parties in Essex don't get better than Best Parties Ever!

Mums-to-be ID checks at maternity appointment

PREGNANT women attending their first appointment at Queen's and King George Hospitals will be asked to show two forms of identification as part of a Government pilot scheme.

The scheme, initiated by the Department of Health, is looking at how best to find out if patients are eligible for free NHS care. It is being run across NHS departments across the country.

Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust, said care would be unchanged for mums-to-be, but they would be asked to provide photo ID and proof of address at their first appointment.

No patient would ever be refused maternity care.

Chief nurse Kathryn Halford said: "This pilot will have no impact on patient care and I'd like to reassure women that if they have any concerns about whether they have the right form of ID, or whether they forget it on the day, their appointment will of course go ahead as planned."

"We know that the NHS generally is under real financial pressure, so it is important that where we can, we do our best to support. Ensuring that the right patients receive free care is one way of doing that."

POINTS MEAN PRIZES: Pupils from St Joseph's Primary School

Pound the streets to improve your health

A FITNESS initiative that had more than 300,000 people walking and cycling last year returns to Waltham Forest this month.

For seven weeks, from Wednesday, September 20, Beat the Street will transform parts of Waltham Forest into an interactive game with people rewarded with points and prizes for getting moving across their community.

More than 190 beeping and flashing sensors called Beat Boxes will be dotted across the area, which people can tap with cards to track their journey. In doing so, they will receive points and win prizes either for their chosen school, community group or as individuals.

Beat the Street is brought to east London by the National Charity Partnership between Tesco and Diabetes UK and the British Heart Foundation as well as Newham Clinical Commissioning Group and Newham Council.

Jenna Hall, programme director for the National Charity Partnership, said: "Beat the Street is a fun game that brings whole communities together."

"It encourages families to get involved in active travel and we hope these changes will continue long after the game has finished."

In 2016 residents from Waltham Forest, Newham, Hackney and Tower Hamlets walked and cycled 54,000 miles.

People living and working in east London are being challenged to beat that distance this year.

Beat the Street helped get thousands of people active in east London last year, including staff, parents and pupils at St Joseph's College.

Find out more about Beat the Street East London by visiting beatthestreet.me/eastlondon.

Teenager wins top busking contest

Talented Josh Gleaves scooped London's top prize for buskers

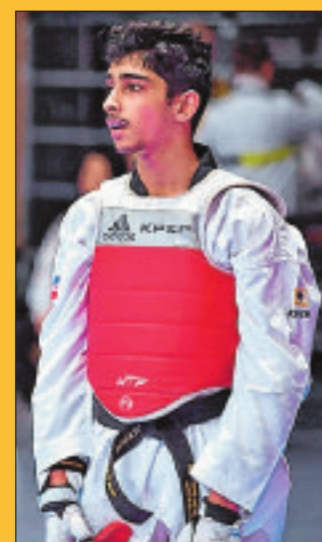

A SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD from Havering has been crowned Gigs Champion 2017 after a six-month search to find London's best busker.

Josh Gleaves beat acts from across the capital to take the top spot at the Mayor of London's Gigs competition, the UK's biggest street music contest.

The final was on Sunday at Westfield, White City, west London. Over the summer, dozens of aspiring young buskers entertained thousands of Londoners and visitors to the capital at famous locations across the city, including St Paul's Cathedral, Wembley and Battersea Power Station.

HELPING HAND: Ibrahim Hussain picks up his donation from Shahid Ali. Right, the taekwondo star in action

Taekwondo star's cash boost for European championships

A WALTHAMSTOW businessman is helping a teenager get to the Junior European Taekwondo Championships.

Ibrahim Hussain, who attends Beal High School in Redbridge, took up the sport when he was just six years old.

Ibrahim, now 15 and one of triplet boys, has been called up to represent Great Britain at the Junior European Championships in Cyprus in November following strong performances in Germany and Greece earlier this year.

Ibrahim has to self-fund the trip, which is around £1,000.

Businessman Shahid Ali, who runs Studio E17 Architects in Highams Park, Walthamstow, stepped forward with a substantial contribution to help him on his sporting journey.

Ibrahim says that although he has had to make many sacrifices along the way – including 4am starts to travel to Manchester for training with the national team – all the hard work is worth it after receiving the call-up in July to represent Great Britain.

He is part of a 16-strong squad and will represent Team GB in the male 48kg division.

INJURY HIT BLUES STAND FIRM

Football

Southend United 0-0 Rochdale
Brian Jeeves reporting from Roots Hall Stadium

SOUTHEND UNITED manager Phil Brown was frustrated that his side were unable to take all three points after Rochdale were reduced to ten men following the sending off of their captain Ian Henderson.

However, with such a lengthy injury list, the Blues boss was thrilled with the clean sheet that saw his side record their third successive Sky Bet League One draw.

Brown faced a crisis with defenders John White, Anton Ferdinand, Michael Turner, Rob Kiernan and Ben Coker all missing due to injury, while Jason Demetriou was away on international duty with Cyprus.

In their absence, the Blues chief handed a league debut to 19-year-old, Elvis Bwomono, while Harry Kyprianou also came into a back four which included Michael Timlin and former West Ham United man Stephen Hendrie.

Nile Ranger was named among the substitutes following his release from prison.

Rochdale, without a victory at Roots Hall since May 1985 and winless at the start of the current campaign, arrived in south east Essex off the back of a useful draw with local rivals Bury.

Dale bolstered their ranks ahead of the match, bringing in defensive-midfielder Jordan Williams on a loan deal from Liverpool, ironically taking his place in a line-up including his identical namesake in the visitors starting line-up.

There was an early let-off for Blues as the visitors' Williams saw his close range effort pushed onto an upright and away by goalkeeper, Mark Oxley. Meanwhile, Niall Canavan's clearance was diverted wide of the target by Stephen McLaughlin as Blues hustled for an opening of their own.

In a frustrating opening period, chances continued to come at a premium. Ryan Leonard failed to make a telling contact with McLaughlin's troublesome corner, but on the stroke of half-time Blues were presented with an opportunity to open the scoring.

Leonard appeared to be fouled by Joseph Rafferty. However, Simon Cox's penalty kick was brilliantly saved by Rochdale stopper Moore low to his right.

Cox fired wide as Southend looked to start the second period with a flourish. But within minutes a flashpoint offered the Blues an advantage.

Rochdale skipper Henderson was late on Hendrie and was shown a straight red card by referee Tim Robinson on the advice of his standside assistant.

Sensing their chance, Blues boss Brown immediately threw former Newcastle United striker Ranger into the action in a bid to break the deadlock. Nevertheless, it was Rochdale who went close to scoring when Canavan nodded over from close range.

Dru Yearwood's appearance from the bench offered Southend a little more spark and polish in what was untidy fare on offer to the Roots Hall faithful on an equally scruffy playing surface. Fellow substitute Theo Robinson could only find the side netting with an angled effort, while Leonard headed directly at Moore as the home side continued to toil fruitlessly.

Despite some late pressure, in truth, Southend didn't do anywhere near enough to deserve all three points, much to the frustration of the home crowd, who have now not seen their side taste victory since the opening day of the season.

Speaking after the game, Brown said: "Ten men doesn't automatically guarantee you three points, you still have to play in a certain way and I think we became one dimensional. We started putting balls into Ranger and trying to get second balls from there instead of playing."

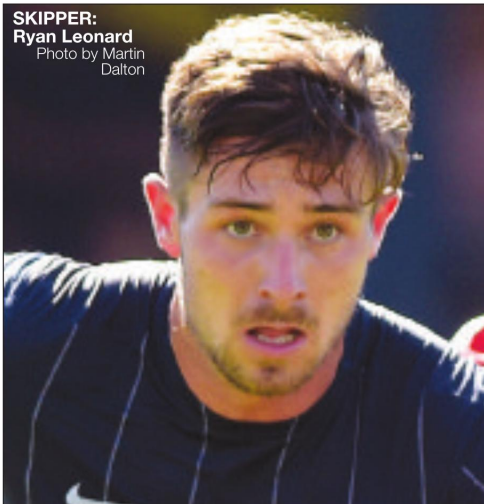

"We stopped going wide, we stopped getting the ball to Macca [Stephen McLaughlin] and McGlashan and stopped asking questions, better questions, then they went down to ten men."

"We had no divine right to win the game."

But Brown was pleased with the clean sheet, Southend's first of the season, adding: "That was the game plan. I apologise to the crowd, but I didn't have a defence."

Blues goalkeeper Oxley said: "We spoke about our shape as we had a few injuries."

THE BIG MATCH

HAMMERS v HUDDERSFIELD

Premier League
London Stadium
Saturday, September 9, (3pm)

Non-league round-up

Six out of six for in-form Basildon

By Brian Jeeves

BASILDON United made it six Essex Senior League victories out of six as Marc Harrison's men saw off Great Wakering Rovers by two goals to one at the Stuart Bingham Stadium.

Ashley Blackburn and Daniel Dafter were on target for the Bees, while Billy Johnson replied for Rovers. Speaking to Yellow Sport after the match, a delighted, but cautious, Harrison said: "You only have to look at the amount of senior appearances in their side, it's a huge difference. But we have pulled it off. But everyone needs to understand that it is still very early in the season and we are still underdogs in this division."

Jason Fontaine scored twice, while Michael Ogboin, Matheus Santos, Tony Cookey and Michael Sherwood all found the net as Barkingside won 6-2 at Hullbridge Sports, while Ilford picked up the points with a 2-0 success over Stansted at the Cricklefield Stadium.

West Essex eased past Burnham Ramblers by two goals to nil, while Redbridge were 3-2 winners at Woodford Town (2017). Sawbridgeworth Town also picked up maximum points, seeing off Waltham Forest 2-0 thanks to goals from Aaron Thomas and Joe Wright.

Dagenham & Redbridge and Leyton Orient, continue to set the pace at the top of the National League. Daggers currently lead the way after goals from Joe White, Morgan Ferrier and Elliott Romaine ensured a 3-1 success over Gateshead at Victoria Road.

Meanwhile, leading goal scorer Macauley Bonne bagged a hat-trick and new signing Matt Harrold added another as second placed Orient emphatically saw off Guiseley 4-1.

Billerica Town progressed in the Emirates FA Cup, seeing off Didcot Town 5-0 in front of a crowd of 1,159 at the AGP Arena. Jake Robinson grabbed a hat-trick for the home side, while Ricky Modeste and Adam Cunningham were also on target as Town eased into the second qualifying round.

Barking are also in the hat after hammering Gorleston 4-0, Dan Gilchrist (2), Theo Ola and Alan Taylor with the east Londoners goals.

Heybridge Swifts' cup adventure continues following a 3-1 win at Arlesey, while Maldon & Tiptree will try again after their tie with Hayes & Yeading United ended 3-3.

Grays Athletic are another side facing a replay, having finished all-square, 1-1, with Hertford Town and it was the same outcome as Thurrock met Harlow Town at Ship Lane.

But it was the end of the Wembley trail for Takeley, who lost 2-0 at Cheshunt.

Witham Town went down 2-1 at Ware and Brightlingsea Regent were beaten 4-1 at Hanwell Town. Tilbury also slipped out of the cup – the Dockers going down by a single goal at home to Aylesbury United.

Billy Crook and Phil Roberts were on target as Braintree Town took the National League South points at Oxford City. Sam Higgins snatched a late equaliser to earn East Thurrock United an important point against Wealdstone at Rookery Hill, while Chelmsford City were left frustrated as Bognor Regis Town came away from the Melbourne Stadium with a goalless draw.

However, it was a bad day at the office for Concord Rangers, who slipped to a 2-0 defeat at the hands of Hungerford Town. Louie Soares and Nick Bignall scored the goals for the hosts.

The Velocity Trophy First Round tie between Canvey Island and Brentwood Town at Park Lane ended in a single goal victory for the visitors in front of a healthy 238 crowd.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Catholic United win their Premier Division clash at Frenford Senior by the odd goal in three, while Basildon Town picked up a point from an entertaining 2-2 draw at Bishop's Stortford Swifts.

White Ensign thrashed Rayleigh Town 4-0. Big winners of the day in Division Three were Old Southendian Reserves, who overcame their Canning Town counterparts by five goals to two.

Orient legend's delight at team's signs of revival

Football

Leyton Orient 4-1 Guiseley
By Brian Jeeves

LEYTON Orient's recent National League revival continued at Guiseley's expense, and former front man, Peter Kitchen, could barely hide his delight.

The O's moved up to second place in the table after a Macauley Bonne hat-trick, coupled with a debut strike from Matt Harrold, saw off the struggling Yorkshire outfit.

Kitchen was thrilled to see the club challenging and seemingly back on their feet following the turmoil of the last couple of seasons.

"Who would have believed the O's would be up at the top after nine matches? He told Yellow Sport.

"This result and the position the club are in is a tribute to the excellent job done by director of football Martin Ling and manager Steve Davis. They must be very pleased with the team's progress so far.

"The management team have assembled a good squad, with depth in most positions. They certainly look capable of regaining their Football League status at the first attempt."

Kitchen added: The O's supporters, who have been magnificent in backing the club through the darkest times, will also be over the moon with the way results are going. The team spirit and togetherness is showing. Last month's shock 6-1 defeat at Bromley is now looking like a freak result.

"Once again, Macauley Bonne proved to be the O's hero with a hat-trick, the first by an Orient player in eleven seasons. It was also great to see Matt Harrold quickly off the mark after he appeared as a second half substitute. Both have established themselves as fans' favourites. Long may it continue."
